Deputies Plead Guilty To Pornography

GOP Clubwomen Pat SD Police

The Lemon Grove Federated Republican Woman's Club passed a resolution Friday endorsing "law enforcement as a backbone of the American way of life and along with (our) moral and religious convictions "and" to openly and publicly promote the good will and support of the general public in backing their police agencies."

The group commended the San Diego Police Department and associated agencies for "preplanning and forethought and adequate show of force" recently during the San Diego race uprising.

Club President Mrs. J. F. Wyer said the club took the action "because so many people seem ready to rap the police."

The club meets every second Monday at 8 p.m. at Monte Vista Lodge.

Man Pleads Guilty To Marijuana Charge

Michael John Krawchak, 22, of 7561 Madison Ave., Lemon Grove, entered a plea of guilty Wednesday in Superior Court to a charge of selling marijuana and possessing marijuana for sale.

Superior Court Judge William Mahedy set Sept. 17 as the date for probation hearing.

Krawchak can receive 5 years to life on the first count and 2 to 10 years on the second offense. Krawchak allegedly possessed about five ounces of marijuana when he was arrested by Sheriff's Deputies in the 1900 block of Ensenada St., Lemon Grove, May 15, was continued on bond, and was picked up again Aug. 6 at Lido's Restaurant in Lemon Grove.

Krawchak, unemployed, was drawing $55 a week for a year when arrested. He had two more payments to make on his '62 auto and owned a motorcycle.

2 Area Youths Held On Alcohol Charge

Two area youths, age 20, were arrested (as adults) early Sunday morning by Sheriff's officers on the charge of possession of alcohol by minors. They are Richard Leroy Trachta of 551 Alene St., Spring Valley, and Robert James Van Wagenen, who has been living with friends in Lemon Grove.

Officers reported the two took off from Jack in the Box drive-thru on Broadway, Lemon Grove, at a high rate of speed and a burning rubber. After making a U turn and proceeding west on Broadway, with the police car in pursuit, officers reported Trachta threw a box of beer out the passenger's window.

The report alleges that there were 15 bottles of cold, unopened beer and 3 empty bottles in the box, none of which were broken. Trachta was also charged with littering.

Pigeons Stolen

James Alan Leamons, 12, reported that 11 pigeons and a 40-pound bag of feed were stolen from the coop at the rear of his home, 1512 Angelus. The sheriff's report notes that the mesh screen of the coop was cut and that the thief had entered the coop.

Bicycle Missing

Eleven-year-old Dennis Zaleschis of 1849 Baldwin Rd., reported the theft of his purple Schwinn Stingray bicycle from the parking lot behind Broadway Hobbies in Lemon Grove while he was in the hobby shop.

Gas Siphoned

Mrs. Roland Reed, 1449 El Prado, reported that gasoline was siphoned from the tank of her car which was parked in front of her house.

Indian Language Spoken

Paraguay is the only American nation where an Indian tongue is spoken as the official language. Most of the people speak Guarani, although Spanish is also spoken.

NEEDS 'FOSTER PARENT'—The Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce Hall, 9050 Memory Ln., is being discussed here by three C. of C. committee members (l. to r.), John Blackford, local public relations man; William Faulwetter, attorney of the area, and Chet Smith, Spring Valley realtor. The three are serving on Dick Allen's committee, authorized Monday, to plan steps for transferring the chamber property to some community organization as a move to take the chamber of commerce out of "social" activities.

Spring Valley Chamber Heads Vote To Quit 'Social Activities,' Dispose Of Property

By Ray Wissler

The board of directors of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce voted Monday night in favor of dropping all "social" activities. Directors, by their vote, also were in favor of dropping all "community" activities that conflict with strict chamber functions.

These chamber functions were defined by John Blackford as those calculated "to better the business climate of Spring Valley." The nine directors present were in unanimous agreement that the chamber should devote its energies to such things as industrial parks, zoning questions, and other business matters.

Steps to be taken to accomplish this in a way satisfactory to the general chamber membership are to be worked out this week by a committee headed by Dick Allen, last year's chamber president. The committee's plan is to be presented at the regular board meeting Monday night.

Committee Being Formed
Blackford, a director and chamber secretary, was one of several committee members named at this meeting. Others were to be contacted early this week to serve with Allen.

C of C President Hank Richardson opened Monday's special meeting by announcing that the chamber's executive board had called the meeting "to decide where we are going." He added: "We have never been a chamber of commerce; we have been a pseudo-social organization."

He pointed out that service clubs exist in Spring Valley to fill this need.

"The chamber of commerce must win the support of the business men," he declared. "The nine directors present voted unanimously on two motions: one to form a committee to work out steps to separate social and business functions; the other to discontinue chamber sponsorship of the American Heritage Parade."

Text of Motions
The first motion, made by Blackford and seconded by Ron Berkel was:

"The board of directors shall appoint a committee to outline the steps necessary to separate the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce as it exists today into (1) a business organization and (2) a community organization. The community organization shall assume the responsibilities of the chamber's building and property, of dances, of the annual American Heritage Parade, and of the Miss Spring Valley Pageant. The business organization shall concern itself with improving the business climate."

Under this plan another organization would assume ownership of the chambers property and building. Allen mentioned the Spring Valley Historical Society as a possible owner of the property.

The second motion, also made by Blackford and seconded by Tom Martinez was:

"The Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce shall discontinue the sponsorship of the American Heritage Parade and shall instruct the chamber manager (Tom Smith) to contact local organizations, offering to assist in organizing a council to sponsor the parade."

Attorney William Faulwetter answered questions regarding legal procedures for the chamber to transfer its property, upon which the chamber hall is situated, at 9050 Memory Ln.

Swim Show Set For La Mesa Pool

A diving exhibition, competitive swimming exhibition, water ballet, and (maybe) hilarious diving clowns will all be on the program for the Second Annual Aquatic Show at La Mesa Municipal Pool Friday.

The two-hour show, starting at 8 p.m., is sponsored by the La Mesa Recreation Department, and is free to the public. Bleachers at the pool and extra seats to be brought in will seat several hundred spectators, according to James McDaniel, director of athletics.

The "maybe" on the clowns is because at press time McDaniel had not had confirmation of their participation.

"We hope they will be here for the show," he said. Champion swimmers will be giving the exhibitions, so the event promises to be a good one for swim fans.

Classes Starting

Classes in senior life saving will begin Wednesday (Sept. 1); and in junior lifesaving, Sept. 6. Both are scheduled for 7 p.m. For more information contact the La Mesa Recreation Department.

Anybody Want Good Parade?

Anybody want a good parade?

The American Heritage Parade is up for grabs by a community club, service club, or a council of such organizations.

Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce directors, at a special Monday night meeting, voted to discontinue sponsorship of the parade, which is scheduled for Oct. 24.

Chamber directors instructed the chamber executive manager, Tom Smith, to contact community and service organizations to find interested sponsors. The chamber offers to assist in the organizing of a council to sponsor this annual parade.

Automatic Curfew Given Juvenile Wards

Juvenile Court Judge Richard L. Vaughn Friday ordered that all dependent children and wards under the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court shall remain in their homes after sunset during any period in which the Civil Defense Administration has declared a danger or disaster period.

The order will affect those juveniles living within the danger or disaster area, Judge Vaughn said. Such juveniles living outside such areas shall not enter or loiter near that area, he added.

Prostitute's Charge Convicts Two More

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Two more persons were convicted Friday and one was found innocent of vice charges in Superior Court trials in which a former Escondido girl was the state's key witness.

Convicted by a Superior Court jury Friday following a two-week trial were John Lucius Barnett, 38, of San Diego, and his wife, Joyce 31. They were found guilty of pandering. Barnett was found innocent of a charge of rape.

Judge Gerald C. Thomas set Sept. 10 for a probation hearing for the Barnetts.

Kenneth T. Vest, 27, of 452

A change of plea to guilty was made Monday by three men of four charged with conspiring to make pornographic motion pictures.

Two of the three were sheriff's deputies and both are well known in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area.

They are Sheriff's Deputy Claude L. Smith, 37, a 13-year veteran who lives at 7180 Mt. Vernon St., Lemon Grove. The other, Sheriff's Sgt. Willard Rigley, 50, a 23-year veteran, lives in Chula Vista, but he lived many years in Lemon Grove, where he served as the sole officer of the Homeland Judicial Court. The Court was established in Lemon Grove at that time.

Also making a guilty plea was John P. Courtois, 42, a general contractor of La Mesa. The fourth man, Donald Colard, 31, operator of the Shady Rock Ranch in Alpine, is scheduled to appear Sept. 2 for a preliminary hearing. He also faces a charge of possessing and cultivating marijuana.

Municipal Judge Roger Ruffin ordered the three men to return Monday for arraignment in Superior Court. The three men are free on $1,000 bond. Deputy District Attorney Bruce Iredale who prosecuted the case offered no opposition.

The change of plea to guilty of conspiring to make pornographic movies makes the charge a felony.

Investigation Continues

Smith and Rigley were suspended by Sheriff Joe O'Connor Aug. 4. O'Connor said that investigation into the matter is continuing.

He directed four teams of deputies in arresting defendants on warrants following three months of investigation. Included in the investigation were officers of the sheriff's office, district attorney's office, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the San Diego police.

O'Connor said a confidential informant triggered the investigation after being asked to work with the suspects in making the film. He said the informant contacted him directly and the investigation was started. The films were made in private homes in Alpine, Flet-

Baby 1Lb., 13½ Oz Is 'Doing Fine'

Elizabeth N. Sheppard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sheppard, 1636 Folkstone St., Spring Valley, was doing fine Wednesday after ten days in this world — even though she weighed only 1 pound, 13½ ounces.

That was her weight at birth Aug. 15 at Grossmont Hospital, and although she still weighed about the same, she had gained back weight she lost after birth.

Dr. Alden K. Boor delivered the baby and she is now in an "isolette" under the care of Dr. George M. Mahan Jr. He said this week the baby is "doing fine."

Her mother saw her for the first time Wednesday. "She looks pretty good—I guess," she said. "I've never seen a baby that small before myself." The Sheppards have two other daughters, Kim, 9, and Jacqueline, 6. One of them also was premature, Mrs. Sheppard said.

LOCAL GIRLS MAKE GOOD: Colleen (left) and Maureen Thornton, formerly of Lemon Grove, and now living in Encinitas, have been cast in roles of the Gemini Twins in Circle Arts Theatre's production of "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," which stars Jose Ferrer. The madcap musical, loaded with vaudeville antics and slapstick gags, plays through Sept. 5.

The DIMMER VIEW

by MAX GOODWIN

End Of The Earth In 100 Years!

That was a frightening report about the coming of the end of the world. The prognostication should be given credibility because it is given by one of our latter-day scientists.

It was Meteorologist Morris Neiburger, a professor at UCLA, who warned us earlier this month that "the end could come in a decade."

His earthy language painted an easily understood picture of the end—the end which will come, says he, not from a great nuclear holocaust but from "gradual suffocation in its (earth's) own wastes."

The wastes, he hastens to explain, are those from the automobile engine and as more of the world population become wheeled, the blanket of exhaust gases will become thicker and we shall eventually suffocate.

Unquestionably, Neiburger sees thousands of replicas of U. S. 101, similar to the section connecting Los Angeles to San Diego, threaded across nations of the world yet to be automobilized by American largess.

We do not wish to deprecate Professor Neiburger's fears. He is sincerely concerned with the problem and his concern is no less than that of the thousands of people now connected with smog control, and installation of control devices in California.

There have already been numberless thousands of persons who have died earlier in Los Angeles' smog basin because of respiratory ailments aggravated by exhaust fumes. (D. J. Callaghan, Bay Area Pollution Control Officer reported that 9,800 tons of uncontrolled emissions pour into the atmosphere over San Francisco every day.) Untold millions of trees and plants have withered and died in the L. A. area as a result of smog concentration. (US's Air Pollution Control Center in Riverside placed the loss to smog, mostly in green, leafy vegetables, at $132 million annually.) These facts, observable to everyone, give logic to Prof. Neiburger's warning.

The danger of not heeding the warnings will come from the idea that death by gradual suffocation is benign as compared to death, say, by nuclear bombing. A bombing brings reaction. People get mad. People react. A nation's forces are geared to defend, protect, and fight. No such emotion accompanies prospects of world suffocation. Benign reaction to benign death!

Certainly there will be people who will work to prevent this world from becoming as barren as the moon—an earth made barren by the convenience of automobiles. If Prof. Neiburg's prognostication is based on fact, right now is when we ought to turn our scientific know-how to the task.

The question still remains: How do you get world nations to agree on atmospheric control? We haven't even been able to get basic agreements in nuclear testing!

Does Federal Aid Aid All?

The California Feature Service offers a good example of how federal control of its public aid expenditures can sometimes defeat its own purposes.

Under the new federal aid to education program is a provision that larger amounts shall be allocated to school districts in which the majority of the pupils have parents earning less than $2,000 annually than to other more "favored" districts. The theory, of course, is that in such "poor" areas there are insufficient tax sources to keep them on par with "richer" districts.

The fallacy of this application of tax theory has been pointed out by Dr. Max Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction. Dr. Rafferty holds that family income is not always an accurate indication of district income, and points to the Needles district, once in his own bailiwick. While Needles does have sufficient children of poorer families to qualify for the larger federal grants, actually the district is well off because of a high concentration of tax producing utilities. Other districts, "richer" by the federal family income standard, actually need the money more because of lighter industrial concentrations.

Dr. Rafferty has indicated that he intends to fight his case—in the courts, if necessary—since he feels it is needless minuscule of public money.

While the formula may well work in some states or areas, its inequity in cases such as that of Needles illustrates the — HOME —

Our earthly homes are to be types of the home which God has prepared for us in glory. There God is going to gather all His children. He has prepared mansions for us to move into. Husband and wife are a team entrusted with little lives. They are to prepare these little lives to live for God now and look forward to eternity with Him in glory.

Lemon Grove Sisters Share Spotlight With Jose Ferrer

"A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" is a corny farce loaded with slapstick antics and brimming with actresses, yet, at Circle Arts Theatre, the starring role is played by one of America's most talented serious dramatists, Jose Ferrer. Pseudolus as a challenge to his acting ability and for the sheer fun of it. His role was created on Broadway by Zero Mostel. During a 966-performance run, "Forum" won best musical of the year in 1963.

The hilarious production opened Tuesday and will run through Sept. 5. Curtain time is 8:30.

Ferrer is the husband of songstress Rosemary Clooney, who is here to see him play a knockabout comic character who tries to free himself from enslavement in a bawdy Roman house hold.

With fantastically funny Igie Wolfington and the world famed entertainment act of the Wiere Brothers fit into the play "Forum" is more of a vaudeville burlesque than a straight comedy. Aside from the music of Stephen Sondheim, "Forum" draws extensively from visual gags and situation comedy popularly used in the early days of the film industry.

Scantly clad courtesans, "topped" by 6-foot-8 Ricki Covette lend attractive appeal to the silly stuff brought on by veteran performers such as Jon Silo, Paul Jayson and Robert Gibbon.

"Forum," a true gasser, will conclude the Circle Arts Theatre summer season of madcap musicals.

RAMBLIN'

WITH ED LOOP

Last week Leora and Glen Knowles of Seattle visited us for a few days; friends I have known for 45 years. While they were here we showed them around the city; but they did more for us than we did for them.

Glen is a real handy man; fixed our porch railings front and back, replaced washers and corrected light fixtures. We are thinking of sending them a couple of hundred dollars to "jet" down here again next year to do some more odd jobs that we know will be put off until then. We are getting our Christmas carol albums in now; we are giving 25% discount for a limited time. Don't forget us when you need office supplies. ## Teen-Age Fair Will Kick Off This Friday

With ear-splitting music and dazzling lights, San Diego County's First Annual Teen-Age Fair kicks off tomorrow (Friday) evening at 5:45 p.m. at Vacation Isle East, Mission Bay Park.

More than 140,000 young people and adults are expected to jam the $2-million "world's fair for teenagers" during its 10-day run.

Many of San Diego County's mayors, and county, state and national officials are expected to participate in opening ceremonies sponsored by Mission Bay Associates.

On hand to entertain first-nighters will be surfing music sensations, The Challengers, Jewel Akens, Lulu Porter, Lennie Welsh, The Wave Chorus, The Spats, Joey Page, Dohie Gray, and more to be announced as they are signed.

Sal Mineo will crown Miss Teen Southern California, who will be selected from 20 county beauties Sept. 4. For those unable to be present, the finals will be carried live over KOGO-TV, Channel 10.

Daily activities include karate and judo demonstrations by the US Marine Corps, three water ski shows, continuous play-offs in the battle of the banks, and eight fashion shows sponsored by Broadway Department Stores.

"Everything at the fair—the bands, the shows, the contests, the entertainment—is free once you have paid your $1.50 admission," said Al Burton, president of Teen-Age Fair, Inc., "except, of course, refreshments and the midway rides."

Although the fair is mostly for young people, parents and adults have been invited by Burton. "We want them to see Teen-Age Fair and to have peace of mind knowing their youngsters are attending as wholesome a recreation form as is possible to produce."

Besides the bands and the shows, young visitors will be particularly interested in the custom car exhibit which features cars from George Barris' collection as well as from Los Angeles and San Diego competition, and continuous surfing movies by Walt Phillips.

Dahlias were named for a Swedish botanist, Andreas Dahl.

MISS TEEN CANDIDATES: Among 20 candidates for the title of Miss Teen Southern California, to be crowned at the Teen-Age Fair, opening tomorrow evening at Mission Bay Park, are (l to r) Andi Wilbur, 16, Monte Vista High lovely of Spring Valley, and Kathleen Noelle Davis, 17, Helix High beauty of Lemon Grove. This first annual event will run for 10 days.

Long War Seen In Viet Nam

A representative of the government of South Viet Nam was in the east county of San Diego Sunday.

He was here to talk to members of the San Diego Professional Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, the national journalistic society.

The Vietnamese, Dang Ngoc Tran, is counselor at the Viet Nam embassy in Washington and assistant to Lt. Gen. Tran Thien Kiem, Vietnamese ambassador to the United States.

Counselor Tran, a French educated, English speaking diplomat, gave little solace to those who want the war over soon. He pointed out that the battle has not really been joined yet. The fighting is in South Viet Nam where limited northern forces have been committed. The fighting will get tougher as the war moves north, he inferred.

He gave a high-government-level picture of the rigors of the war his nation has been fighting for ten years but saw victory coming eventually if U. S. aid continues and grows.

"We understand and trust the government of the United States," he said in answer to a question regarding race riots. "We have taken the trouble to study the cause. We know it to be a part of democracy. Our fear," he said, "is not that riots in the United States means a change of government policy regarding Viet Nam aid. Our fear is that our enemy may misinterpret and misuse. The war might then be expanded because of the misunderstanding."

The young, handsome diplomat fielded all the questions put to him by newsmen making even diplomatic evasion sound much like a straight answer. But he left no question about the grimness of the war. Nor did he leave any doubt about Vietnamese belief that it will be a very long war.

When the meeting was over he stopped to say goodbye to a small group of members that had clustered in front of the meeting place.

"Let us hope that we shall soon meet at a 'victory party,'" said one of the members.

"It will not be in our lifetime," the counselor said.

MAIL BAG

Dear Editor:

For several years, many of us who live near the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce Hall, 9050 Memory Lane, have been harassed by the teenagers who attend the Wednesday and Sunday night dances.

Property damage has been extensive by roving bands of teenagers. Vandalism, drinking, noise, drag racing and obscenity are common-place.

Many of the elderly people are afraid to unlock or leave their homes on teenage dance nights. The rest of us spend from four to six hours per teenage dance night trying to protect our property and theirs.

The Chamber of Commerce, from all appearances is completely commercial, does not intend to curb any of the abuses perpetrated by the teenagers on the residents and therefore does not deserve any support from the people of Spring Valley.

The County Supervisors and the County Sheriff's Office have failed to suppress the dance of the harassment following numerous appeals by the taxpayers homeowners and the businessmen. Their attitude is that we will have to live with the situation whether we like it or not.

I am asking you to publicize a public meeting to be held at the Spring Valley Elementary School, 3845 Spring St., on August 26, at 7:30 p.m. for the purpose of forming an organization to restore law and order to the area. All residents of Spring Valley who are interested in the welfare of this area are urged to attend and support our efforts.

Every Seat To Be Good For The Beatles Show

Only 27,000 of the nearly 35,000 seats available in Balboa Stadium will be used for the year's first appearance in Southern California of that entertainment group known as The Beatles Saturday evening (Aug. 28), according to show promoter Lou Robins. The gates will open at 6:30.

"Every seat will have a clear, unobstructed view of the stage which we will set up on the 20 yard line of the football field at the south end of the stadium," said Robins. He added that none of the seats on the sides of the stage will be sold.

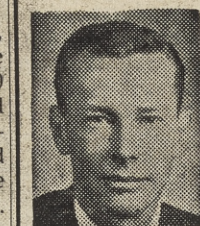

The English group, whom some have said are losing their drawing power, have just finished performing before wild, sellout audiences in New York and Houston.

Lots of Government Land

The federal government today owns 770 million acres of land in the 50 states. It also holds in trust more than 50 million acres of Indian land. The states own 78 million acres. This means that 61 percent of the land in the 50 states carries nearly all of the land-tax load imposed by local governments.
